GAYLOR ELECTED MAYOR OF CITY

Independent Nominee Polls
Plurality of 423—Carries
Entire Ticket With Him Except George Zimmerman.

Ralph W. Gaylor, independent candidate for mayor, defeated Melville W. Mix, democrat, by 423 votes. George P. Zimmerman, councilman, candidate from the third ward was the only democrat to be elected and he slipped into office on the narrow margin of six votes.

Mix ran behind his ticket. He failed to carry one ward. Lockridge, the socialist candidate, only polled 216 votes and his candidacy practically had no effect on the outcome of the vote.

The race for clerk was a rather close one. Kennedy, democrat, polled 1,332 votes while Nutt, independent, got 55 more votes. The two councilmen-at-large carried by good pluralities. Zimmerman had a hard fight to win and had only six to spare.

The day was a rather quiet one and passed off without any trouble. The day was an ideal one and the voting began as soon as the polls were opened. The vote is a large one as both sides made strong efforts to show their entire strength.

George Nutt, in whose behalf a vigorous campaign was waged, defeated the present incumbent, Jas. L. Kennedy, who has faithfully discharged the duties of city clerk for the past four years, with the small margin of 55.

Joseph anser, the present guardian of the city's finances, who has made a record for courteous and efficient administration of office, was replaced by Willis L. Kimball, with a lead of 396.

In the race for city judge the first that ever was elected in the city, Ralph S. Feig, won over J. Fred Bingham by 243.

That the main strength of the independents was placed behind their candidates for councilmen-at-large was very evident, by the handsome vote cast for Millard F. Kerr, who ran ahead of David C. Burkhardt by 411, and F. W. Kuss, who led Edward L. Mason by 422.

In the first ward Jennison Chesbro defeated Robert G. Priem by 117. Henry J. Eliger, independent, won over Henry Schmidt for councilman of the second ward by 78, while George P. Zimmerman, the only democrat elected, carried the third ward by six votes over his opponent, Thomas Webb.

In the fourth ward, Otis Replogie, independent, defeated Vernon Graf-miller by 143, while Nile J. Lowman won over Richard Roggerman, present councilman of the fifth ward by 65 votes.

Gaylor Makes Statement.
Mr. Gaylor is naturally happy over the returns, and is deeply grateful to his friends who have united in his support. He issued the following statement to a News-Times reporter this morning:

"While I am of course pleased over the outcome of the election, I do not consider the victory a personal one. We told the people what we stood for and they have taken us on faith. I shall give the people the best there is in me and ask the co-operation of all our citizens in making the next administration a success."

REGULARS TO PLAY HUEBNER'S SUNDAY

Sunday the Ullman Regulars will meet the strong Huebner team of South Bend at Springbrook park, in the first of a three-game series for the championship of the northern part of the state. Practice is being held every evening this week and nothing is being left undone to put the local squad in best of condition for Sunday.

Johnson, who has been playing right end, has been shifted to the back field, while Burky will handle the right wing. The manager this morning closed a contract with the Fort Wayne Friars football club of that city for a game to be played on Nov. 23. This team defeated the Huebners last Sunday and are considered one of the best in the state.

ISSUE BUILDING PERMIT.
A building permit was issued at the city clerk's office Wednesday morning to Rankert and Eggleston for the construction of a brick building on E. Joseph st. The building will be 50 by 103. The estimated cost is $300.

COMPLETING IMPROVEMENTS.
Another force of men were put to work by the Bell Telephone Co. on S. Main st. Wednesday morning digging trenches for the conduits which will undermine the Lake Shore tracks. This will complete the conduits, although wires will have to be placed in them to finish the improvement.

Letters remaining in the postoffice at Mishawaka, Ind., and advertised Nov. 5, 1913: Nick DeWitt, Frank Fallis, Sana Miller, Mrs. A. L. Hollister, J. H. Hunt, Mrs. Margaret Jones, Miss Ruth Kramer, Frank J. Miller, Imre Mihaly, H. Swanson, John Shinkle, Mrs. George Taylor.

L. F. McDONALD AND LOUISE WADNER WED

L. F. McDonald of Lansing, Mich., and Miss Louise Wadner of this city were united in marriage Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at South Bend, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. M. Coffey, pastor of the St. Andrew's Evangelical church.

Miss Wadner was attended in a traveling suit of blue and was attended by Miss Helen Deitz of Lansing, Mich., who also wore a traveling suit of blue. Ernest Wadner, brother of the bride, acted in the capacity of best man.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wadner, 113 W. Lawrence st., and is well known and has a large circle of friends in this city. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald of Grand Rapids, Mich., and holds the responsible position of manager of the Lansing Sanitary Iceless Packing Co.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald left Wednesday afternoon for their honeymoon.

moon trip. Upon their return they will reside in Lansing, Mich.

VAUDEVILLE PLEASES.

Ryan & Bell opened an engagement at the Century theater Monday evening. In their act they introduced some good comedy singing, talking and dancing, which greatly pleased the patrons. Jack Polk, an eccentric comedian, completed the vaudeville bill. Election returns will be shown at this popular playhouse tonight.

WILL GIVE ENTERTAINMENT.
Members of the Young People's club of the English Lutheran church are making arrangements for an entertainment, "A Tom Thumb Wedding and Feast," to be held in the Wilklow hall on Wednesday evening, Nov. 16. The ceremony and the musical program will be carried out in the hall, after which the feast and refreshments will be served at the home of Mrs. Oscar Miller, S. Main st.

DIES IN CANADA.
William Little, who was formerly a well-known moulder of this city and of late years resided in Canada, died Monday. He is survived by two brothers, Thomas Little of this city and David Little of New York.

PRAYER MEETING THURSDAY.
At the prayer meeting to be held Thursday evening at the Christian church, the study chapter will be the 19th of Acts. After the close baptismal services will be held.

PERSONALS.
Mr. and Mrs. John Mentel, Atwood, Ind., are in the city visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Jacob Shank, Washington av.

Mrs. E. N. Johnson has returned from a visit in Chicago. Cleighton Harriman has resigned his position with the Ross lunch room.

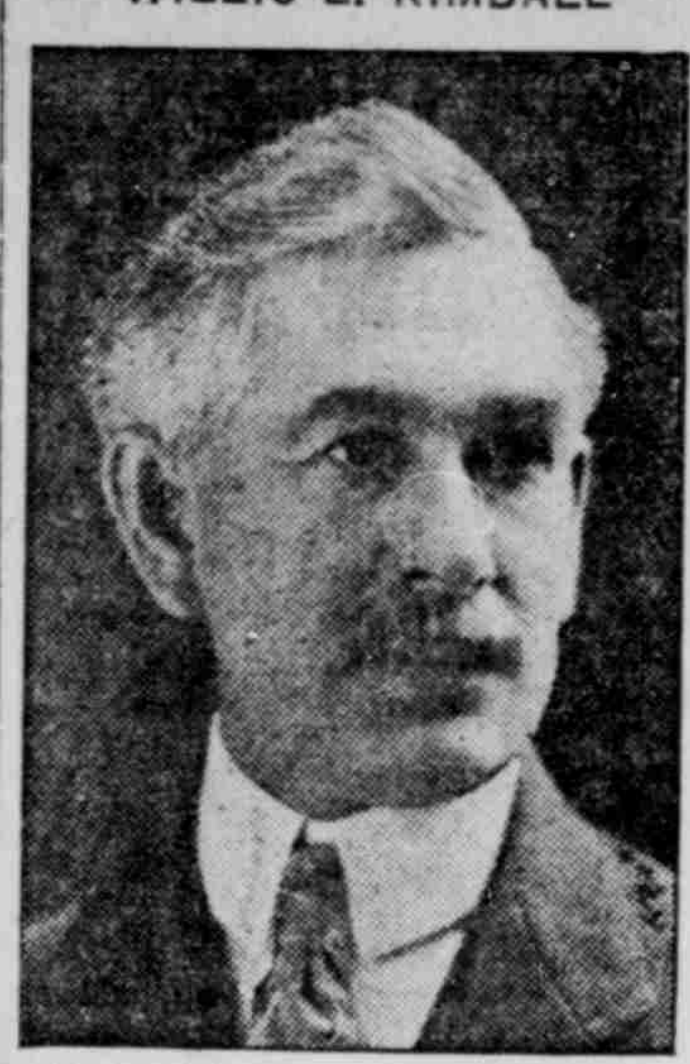

Max Kempner of Elkhart transacted business in this city on Wednesday. Adolph Fortsbauer spent Tuesday in Chicago.

NORTH SIDE READING CIRCLE.
Mrs. Otto Mulnich of 322 N. Division st. will entertain the North Side Reading Circle at her home Thursday afternoon.

LADIES' AID TO MEET.
The Ladies' Aid society of the First Baptist church will hold an all day meeting at the church Thursday. The day will be spent by the members trying on costumes. Every member is invited to come and bring their dinners. The regular monthly meeting of the society will be held in the afternoon.

HOBO SOCIAL TONIGHT.
A hobo social will be given Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Edwards, 127 W. Broadway, by the Good Will circle of the First Presbyterian church. All the guests are expected to come in costume and many new entertaining features will be used. Friends and members of the society are urged to attend.

STATE NEWS

WASHINGTON, Ind., Nov. 5.—Alma Morton, ten-year-old daughter of Seed Morton, contractor, may die of burns she suffered. She was playing with a lighted jack-o'-lantern when her dress caught fire. Her mother, hearing her screams, ran to her and smothered the flames by wrapping her dress about the child.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Nov. 5.—Albert L. Anderson, ex-postmaster of Jeffersonville, is on his way home to his wife and two little sons from the federal prison at Ft. Leavenworth, Kas., where he was taken Feb. 27, 1913. He served the minimum of eight months of a sentence imposed by A. B. Anderson, judge of the federal court at Indianapolis, on his plea of guilty to a shortage in his accounts. The shortage amounted to $1,755 and was found in September, 1912, by an inspector.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Nov. 5.—Oscar Billings, a farmer, probably will die as the result of injuries suffered when his nephew, Mel Billings, according to witnesses, struck him above the right ear with a heavy iron pipe. Morton Billings, father of Mel Billings, was arguing with his brother, Oscar Billings. Mel Billings was near.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 5.—The building in lower Main st. occupied by the Handy Furniture company, was wrecked today when it slid into the cellar. Workmen were excavating for a cellar and furnace basement when the foundations gave way and the building toppled into the excavation.

TIPTON, Ind., Nov. 5.—Mrs. Mariah Summers died at her home a. Atlanta, after being unconscious for a week. Asphyxiation was given as the cause. She was found almost dead by her granddaughter a week ago, and never regained consciousness. The younger woman narrowly escaped. One of her surviving children is Ashur Summers of Indianapolis.

FRANKFORT, Ind., Nov. 5.—A gasoline engine at the Monon elevator south of the city, owned by Stephens & Clark, exploded this afternoon, doing damage to the building to the amount of $500. The engine had left the engine room only a few moments before the explosion took place.

FRANKFORT, Ind., Nov. 5.—Ruth Johnson, fourteen years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, swallowed carbolic acid at her home this afternoon, just before the hour for going to school, and there is no hope for her recovery. The family is unable to give a reason for the rash act.
